

War!

War as in actual, so in commercial;
It requires quality and merit to all,
So prices sometimes fall.
Perhaps at first they were too tall.
I am not telling you a story How business is mad for glory, The truth all known, of course we must,
Each man do business for the dust, But with a little cash where to go In the city to get the best show, So I tell you not to prowl the city over, But pin your faith to the Banner Liquor House Store.

There is Mt. Vernon Golden Wedding, to life so dear, All sorts of wines and whiskies and beer, Cordials, cigars and tobacco more than I can tell,
And that no firm in the city can undersell.
So money save and share choice galore, Which beckons you to the Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Con- tain Mercury

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system—then entering the blood through the mucous surfaces, such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.

GOOD CARD

Has Been Arranged

By the Ruhlin Central Athletic Club.

John Denison Will Meet Geo. Church.

Tommy White Has Good Show With Terry.

Important Matches Made In East— Local Sporting News.

The Ruhlin Athletic club has arranged a program for an entertainment to be given in a short time, at its club rooms, corner of Carroll and Exchange sts.

The most important number on the program will be a four round go between Johnny Denison and George Church. Both men are from Cleveland.
The other numbers will be as follows:

Frank Lillies vs. Jack Detrich.
Jack Palmer vs. D. Phelps.
Will Briener vs. Chas. Phillips.
Fred Bolling vs. E. Whitleman.
Harry Kern vs. Billy Smith.
Joe Kern vs. H. Dorance.
Kid Gray vs. unknown.

All of the events will be four rounds.
No decision will be given. John Leman will give a bag punching exhibition and Fred Smith and John Lavery, 100 pound wrestlers will contest for honors.

TERRIBLE TERRY'S EQUAL.

The students of the fighting game are unable to figure out how the mighty Terry McGovern is to continue his unbroken record of jig time victories after next Tuesday evening, when he meets Tommy White at Tattersalls, Chicago, says the Enquirer.
They recognize Terry's strength, his cyclical movements, his wonderful punching qualities and all the poweress he has in stock. They count on the wonderful condition he is always in on account of the absolutely correct methods of life he follows. Then they look over White's career. It is the most wonderful in the books. Like McGovern, he has always been of strictly correct habits, and at the age of 30 years, after 107 ring battles, he is as strong or stronger than ever. He has fought that many battles, not mentioning nearly as many more exhibitions. He has never been knocked out. He has only been knocked down six times. He went down before Australian Billy Murphy in a go that was scheduled for a friendly one. Ben Jordan toppled him over in London, but White was still fighting when his seconds stopped the argument in unnecessary alarm. Pete Peterson and Dick Green each knocked him over, but were afterwards whipped in the same fights. Billy Whistler sent him off his pins in the first, but White made the meet a draw in 20 rounds.

FIGHTS BOOKED.
A number of fistie battles that ordinarily would take about four years to decide probably will be rolled into the four months remaining before the Lewis law will repeal the Horton fighting bill that permits of the decision in New York of 25-round fights.
At least four of the contests now on the schedule are of the championship class—fights that usually take weeks in the arranging and months before they are decided. The most imporant fights now down for decision are: Robert Fitzsimmons and Ed. Dunk-horst, at Hercules Athletic club, April 19.
Terry McGovern and Tommy Warren, at Brookway Athletic club, April 19.
Joe Walcott and Tommy West, at Broadway Athletic club, week of May 1st.
James J. Corbett and James J.
Jeffries, at Seaside Athletic club, May 14.
Charles ("Kid") McCoy and Thomas Sharkey, at Seaside Athletic club, June 21.
Charles ("Kid") McCoy and James J. Jeffries, at place not yet named, July 30.
Robert Fitzsimmons and Gus Ruhlin, at Westchester club.
The limit of each of these is to be 25-rounds. In addition there are many lesser contests that now do not attract more than passing interest, being entirely overshadowed by the strength of the fights between the big fellows.

FIGHTS OF THE WEEK.

The best battle of the week in the East is that scheduled for tonight in New York—25 rounds between "Mysterious" Smith and Matty Matthews, the best welterweights in the country outside of Joe Walcott. This should result in one of the most slashing fights seen in a long time. The most important battles scheduled are as follows:

Tuesday—Terry McGovern and Tommy White, six rounds, Chicago; Billy Smith and Matty Matthews, 25 rounds, New York; Dave Sullivan and Billy Whistler, 20 rounds, Baltimore, Md.; "Wilmington" Daly and George Mc-Fadden, lightweights, six rounds, Philadelphia, Pa.

Wednesday—Gibbs and Stackhouse, in Cleveland.

Friday—Danny McMahon and Eddie Sprague, featherweights, 10 rounds, Peoria, Ill.; Terry McGovern and Tommy Warren, 25 rounds, New York; Art Simms and Ole Oleson, 130 pounds, 20 rounds, Davenport, Ia.; "Australian" Murphy and Larry Gleason, 128 pounds, 20 rounds, Sioux City, Ia.

Saturday—Clarence Forbes and Jimmy Smith, featherweights, 20 rounds, Toronto, Ont.; "Spike" Sullivan and Young Starr, lightweights, six rounds, Philadelphia; Oscar Gardner and Jack McClelland, featherweights, 20 rounds, Niles, O.

A. R. Base of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had severe backache and pains in the kidneys. Was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. It's guaranteed.

ORGANIZATION

Of the New Council.

Mr. Frank Fieberger Elected President

And Mr. Frank J. Brown, Vice President.

Charles H. Isbell Re-elected City Clerk.

Mayor Young Made a Few Remarks to the New Body.

After transacting considerable business Monday evening the old Council adjourned sine die, and the retiring members gave their chairs to the councilmen-elect. Mayor Young took the president's chair, called the meeting to order and administered the oath of office to the new council members, and those re-elected.

The new members are: August W.
Piske, Fourth ward; Richard P. Mason, Fifth ward; A. F. Koons, Third ward; Alvin Rice, Second ward. Members re-elected, T. D. Paul, First ward; Frank J. Brown, Sixth ward. Retiring members: L. Harley Homan, Third ward; E. P. Sprigle, Fifth ward; W. L.
Carlton, Second ward; L. H. Amer, Fourth ward, (resigned).

The personnel of the new council is as follows: First ward, George Bradt, T. D. Paul; Second ward, Alvin Rice,

Sixth ward, Frank J. Brown and Archie Markle.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The election of officers was the first business transacted by the new Council. But one nomination was made for president. Mr. Paul nominated Mr.
Fieberger. He said: "I take pleasure in naming for the position of president as good a man as I know, a man true to the interests of the people, and one who possesses intelligence that enables him to determine what things are best for the public need. I name Mr. Frank Fieberger, of the Third ward."

The motion was seconded by Mr.
Frank J. Brown, Republican, of the Sixth ward, who asked that the vote of Council be made unanimous, and was seconded by Mr. Koons, Republican, of the Third. A motion was presented by Mr. Markle, Republican, of the Sixth, and seconded by Mr. Sorrick, Republican, of the Second, that the rules be suspended and Mr. Fie-berger elected by acclamation, carried, and the chair declared Mr. Fieberger president.

The magnanimity and fairness of the Democratic majority was demonstated by its extending to the Republican minority the courtesy of naming the vice president. Mr. Markle named Mr.
Frank J. Brown, of the Sixth ward, for the position. The nomination was seconded by Mr. Sorrick. Mr. Paul, Dem-

7; Wilson, 5. Isbell declared elected.

REMARKS BY THE MAYOR.

"I'll not deliver a formal address to Council tonight," said Mayor Young.
"But I wish to make a few remarks.
I think that the outgoing Council, by annexing contiguous territory to this city, performed an act that should cause it to be remembered with grate-tude by the citizens of Akron. The Council made its mistakes and was obliged to take considerable abuse, and in this the new Council will be no exception. That man is not a good citizen or a capable representative of the people whose works in public life are merely for the good of the party to which he belongs. His only devotion should be to the people. If a man performs his honest duty well, he need have no fear. A quality of vital importance to a public official is backbone. He should be able to resist the wily pleadings of the paid agents of the corporations."

Among other things, Mayor Young referred to the value of franchises, and the cure that should be exercised by Council in granting them. "The franchise of the street railway company," he said, "is worth $1,500,000 to the company, yet they were given it almost absolutely free, receiving only the allowance of $8,000 for improvement of East Market st. We should have held the long end of the string in this affair. The Council cannot afford to swallow sugar-coated pills."

Mr. Mackle and Mr. Paul were appointed a committee to escort President Fieberger to the chair. In taking charge of his position, Mr. Fieberger said: "Fellow members: The honor you have conferred upon me is appreciated. I heartily thank you all and shall endeavor to merit the honor."

Mr. Fieberger announced that he was not prepared to name committees, and the meeting was adjourned until next Monday evening.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

Kenma, Jackson Co., W. Va.
About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.
